

Junella B. Heintzinger

June 2, 1928 - September 2, 2020

Junella Balster Heintzinger

Passed away on Wednesday, September 2, 2020 at the age of 92.

Between raising a family of 5 children, Emil D. (Suzanne Thompson), Tom (Pam Tagliavia), Dale, Beth (Pam Fritsch) and Paul (Rosemary Pipitone), with her husband, Emil A.; she gave her time freely to PTA, church, friends, and family. An exuberant ball of energy, Junella was constantly in motion. An exceptional baker, her family and friends reaped the benefits of her sweet treats. Later in life she began working full time at Thrift Drug's corporate offices, where she found a whole new group of people to keep her busy. She stayed there until her retirement. She managed to travel to far places, always watching her pennies so she could afford the next trip. She had stories from her trips to Europe, Alaska, Hawaii, Central America, crisscrossing America more than once as the lone driver, to name but a few.

Junella is survived by her grandchildren, Laura (Scott Guntle), Emil E. (Erin Shearer), Erin L. (Michael Holodnak), Eric (Alisha Kenney), Shannon (Brandon Hunter), Geoffrey (Lisa McFedries), Mallory (Joel Trocki); and her great-grandchildren, Joey, Jesse, Ty, Autumn, Trevor, Emil R., Arianna, Josie, Samuel, Jeremiah, Nathaniel, Jackson and Hannah. Her heart also belonged to all her nieces and nephews. This obituary would not be complete without mention of June's former daughter in law, Christine M. Heintzinger who remained close to the end.

June was preceded in death by her former husband, Emil A. Heintzinger; her parents, Amelia Gotleiba Ritter and William Charles Balster; as well as her siblings, Louisa Jane Kuehn, Henry Charles Balster, and Margaret Virginia Walters. She died peacefully in her sleep.

It took 92 years, but Junella Amelia Balster Heintzinger is finally still. She will be missed by family and friends.
