

Pamela Sue MacKay

July 24, 1958 - March 12, 2019

Pamela MacKay

On Tuesday, March 12, 2019.

Pamela MacKay, loving mother of two children, passed away at age 60. Pam was born on July 24, 1958 in Butler, PA to Robert E. Lumley and Constance (Connelly) Benton.

She lived her life for her children, who meant the world to her. She also loved getting to interact with her favorite customers at Planetmart, which was her place of employment for the last 14 years. If she gave you a hard time, you were one of her favorites. She loved arts and crafts, including ceramics and sewing. One of her favorite TV shows was Mike and Molly, which she owned every season. She was known for her sense of humor, her caring nature, and her ability to make people smile.

Pam was preceded in death by her mother, Constance and her nephew, Hunter. She is survived by her two children, Ryan and Katie, her father Robert, and several cousins, nieces, and a nephew.