“ As I sit here flooded with memories of you over years, I’m still trying to wrap my head around WHY. WHY I am on this page writing this with tear filled eyes! You have been taken too soon, Pap! So many are left with a tremendous pain and sorrow. You touched so many lives. You were truly one of the great ones. The mold was certainly broken when he made you.

Pap, you were a great man who instilled so many life lessons in me and your granddaughters. You were headstrong, strong-willed and outspoken. You were steadfast in your beliefs and your family. You had a hard exterior, but the inside was filled with love and compassion. You went above and beyond for both my daughters. You accepted K-Mack and I as your own. For that I am eternally grateful. So, for now, it’s not goodbye, as we will see you again someday.

Thank you for being the best Pap to Maddy and K-Mack. Thank you for being there for me. I love you Pap. I miss you so very much. Rest easy and give em hell up there!
