“ Dear Mam,

I cannot begin to describe the impact you have had on my life, I don't think you ever knew what it meant to me to have you in my life and just how much you have taught me. Not only did you and Pap raise the wonderful man that is now my husband but you graciously accepted me into your family from day one as if I were one of your own. You and Pap taught all of us the true meaning of family and how you can get through anything, no matter how hard it is, as long as you stick together. You and Pap are among the kindest, most loving and generous souls I have ever known and we will miss you two every single day until we meet again. Until then... I will be on the lookout for the hummingbirds you send- Love You, BJ
