“ I had to say goodbye to a very dear friend with great sadness. Decaf did everything she could to prevent getting Covid and couldn't escape this horrible virus. She often talked about her grandchildren and was so looking forward to retirement. Her greatest loves were Rick, kids and grandkids. Her dear soul will be missed. More people in this world should learn from the wonderful example she led. My heart and prayers are with all of you. Charisse and Leroy Bunyan
