“ Barb and Bill were neighbors of mine whom I came to love. They always looked out for me. Barb watched my cats anytime I was away. She spoiled him rotten! One of them loved her more than me! I spent many happy hours chatting with Barb, reminiscing about her life growing up, meeting and marrying Bill, living with him in Southern California, and then returning to Pittsburgh. She was a hoot. I will miss her terribly. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. I treasured having known Barb.
