“For all the Saints who From their Labors Rest!”

Ben Jones was one of the kindest men I ever met. Even though I've only been pastoring at Westminster Presbyterian in Vero Beach for a short time, Ben went out of his way to make me feel welcome and was excited about the new direction and vision for the church and the resultant growth that followed excited him greatly.

He would regularly take me out for breakfast either on Monday or Tuesday morning where we would talk about everything from church politics to his great love of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a team I still blame for stealing the 2006 Super Bowl away from my beloved Seahawks.

I miss you Ben. And look forward to celebrating your life this Saturday here in Vero Beach with your beloved church family.
