

Beverly Ann Juliano

March 31, 1938 - March 22, 2025

Beverly "Bev" Juliano, age 86, of Oakmont, died on March 22, 2025. Born March 31, 1938, in Smithton, PA, she was the daughter of the late William and Ann (Yanniello) Kozakiewicz.

Bev was an avid player of bingo, mah-jongg, and pinochle, her competitive spirit always paired with a warm and welcoming smile. Summers were a special time for Bev, as she cherished moments spent at the Jersey Shore enjoying the simple pleasures of pickles and highballs, always in the company of her beloved family. A true "black and gold girl," Bev's love for the city of Pittsburgh was evident to all who knew her.

Bev is survived by her children, Samuel (Pierre) Juliano and Michael (Robin) Juliano; grandchildren, Anna (Charmae), Tara (Bryan), Samuel IV (Meaghan), and Nicholas (Sabrina); great-grandchildren, Ava, Samuel V, Isabella, and Olivia; siblings, Rosalie (Ross) Farber and William (Mary-Louise) Kozakiewicz; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Valerie and grandson, Justin. The family extends heartfelt gratitude to the staff at UPMC Family Hospice at Canterbury Place. Their compassion and professionalism provided comfort and solace during Beverly's final hours.

Memorial contributions are suggested to St. Vincent De Paul Society in memory of Beverly Juliano.

St. Paul Parish, 820 Carbon Rd Greensburg PA 15601. or online at <https://www.osvhub.com/pbcatholic/giving/funds> and select "poor and needy".

A private memorial service will be held to honor the Bev, those wishing to pay their respects are kindly asked to reach out to the family for details.

“ In silence soft, the shadows wane,
Your laughter lingers, yet no more pain.
With gentle grace, you've slipped away,
In fields of peace, where angels play.

"What's on tap?" you'd ask with glee,
Now in God's light, forever free.
Though hearts may ache, we find our way,
In memories bright, you'll always stay.
