February 21, 1945 - February 6, 2026

Carol E. Dodaro, age 80, passed away unexpectedly on February 5, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and steadfast devotion to her family and friends.

Born on February 21, 1945, Carol lived a life guided by kindness, generosity, and quiet strength. She was the beloved wife of Jim Dodaro, with whom she shared 56 years of marriage filled with partnership, unconditional love, warmth, humor, and countless treasured memories.

Carol was a proud and devoted mother to her three children, Jim (Teri) Dodaro, Dan (Milissa) Dodaro, and Carrie (Mike) Smetana. Her greatest joy was raising her children and watching them grow into loving parents themselves. She was a devoted grandmother to nine grandchildren, Michael, Emily, Megan, John, Danielle, Charlie, Zachary, Cecilia, and Vincent, each of whom brought her immense pride and happiness. Time spent with family was what she cherished most.

She is also survived by her loving sister, Lou Ann (Herb) Paterra, her brother, Bob (Lois) Pogyor, and her cherished niece and nephews, all of whom held a special place in her heart.

Carol found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved golfing, playing Rummikub with dear friends, and friendly competitions of Words with Friends. She and Jim treasured their winter months in Tampa, where they built lasting friendships and created many happy memories.

Blue skies and sunshine will forever remind her family of the warmth, love, and joy she brought into their lives.

“ Carol was a wonderful friend. We played pinocle with her Mom. She was in my wedding to Lynn Hoffman. When he was killed in Viet Nam she was beside me thru out those difficult times. I was with her when she met Jim. I have a picture of her with my husband Ron Supansic. We loved going to the White Elephant for the dances. Carol never said a bad word about anyone. She was a beautiful person in all she did. So sad to say goodbye! My prayers are for Jim and family.

“ I loved Carol and Jim from the moment I met them and all the friends and family that came over to my house and were sitting on my patio when I returned.

My husband invited all 6 of them over for dinner unbeknownst to me.

When I arrived there they were 6 people sitting on my patio and my husband had invited them to dinner.

And Jim had stepped up and made dinner for us.

I truly loved them from that point on.

Good bye my lovely friend. My heart is broken.
