“ Carol was a wonderful, kind, caring person. She would walk into yoga class and say a personal hello to each one of us. She never missed a beat thinking of the next step. In her quiet calm voice, she would tell us what to do as she was doing the routine with us. She always explained why we were doing the exercises too. Carol will be truly missed by all the lives she touched through the years. What a precious lady! May she rest in peace!
