Dad,

I'm not much of a poet, struggling to find words, expressions, emotions, regarding your passing and the feelings in me.

It's with a heavy heart i write these words, typing through tears of passion, joy, sorrow and pain, you see it's about you passing, and my mixed emotions joy sorrow and pain. You were a good man to everyone you knew, and many you knew, everyone loved you, a kind soul you did show. As you go to rest, in your place of peace, i know, the lords work is complete, i truly do know.

You were many things to me, like a doctor, an extraordinary kind, the kind that knows people, their symptoms and states of the mind. You were an inspiration to me, the most positive kind, it has taken many years, and talent you see, repairing my amputated soul took tools of all kinds.

You were a teacher, i learned, the uncommon kind, the kind that was technical, skilled and social, talents you uncommonly find, wrapped up in you, such a fascinating mind. i think people refer too them, as the natural kind.

You were a lawyer, a preacher a philosopher, the eccentric kind. When my time on earth is through and i must report, these are the kind of words when i meet my maker, i intend to report.

I hope these words find you, i want you to know, how deeply i loved you my words cannot show.

A spiritual message for all to see, i know you are out there watching over me. Do you know how i know this? you taught me to see! Additionally, when your spirit was released from your body, i felt the energy pass right through me.

*Your loving son,
Todd*
