

Clara Marie Violi

October 29, 1933 - October 13, 2019

Clara Marie "Claire" (Wulfkamp) Violi

Age 85, beloved daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother passed away peacefully on October 13, 2019, after a brief illness. Clara Marie was born on October 29, 1933 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She was preceded in death by her parents, Clara (Collet) and Charles Wulfkamp; step-father, Norbert (Bud) Wuenstel; and her husband, the love of her life, Alfred (Al) Domenic Violi. She is survived by her three daughters, Dr. Elisa Claire (Dr. Kevin) Taffe, Jennifer Marie (Mike Zotter) Violi of Portland, OR, and Teresa Anne (Mark) Trombetta. Claire was lovingly known to her four grandchildren as Young Grandma (Alex and Michael Taffe) and Mimi V (Giuliana and Matteo Trombetta). She is also survived by many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Claire was first and foremost an exceptional daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother. Before marrying Al, she worked for twenty years at the Deckman Company as office manager, a job she fully enjoyed. Above all else, Claire valued family and friends, demonstrated by her extensive genealogy research, countless mailed greeting cards and frequent lunch dates. She played a mean Scrabble game, baked a perfect pie, and lovingly attended to every detail of every holiday.

The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Sebastian Roman Catholic Church at 10 am on Saturday, October 19, 2019. Burial will be at Northside Catholic Cemetery.

Donations in her memory can be made to Operation Safety Net, 903 Watson Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15203.

“ I finally met Clara at Father Vecchio's funeral last year. We had spoken on the phone countless times over the years when she would call Father. I was his secretary. He thought the world of your mother. May God grant her eternal rest
