

Colleen Tasotti

September 4, 1953 - April 15, 2022

Colleen Doris Brick-Theis-Tassotti-Mulvey, 68, of New Kensington, passed on to see the lord on Good Friday, April 15, 2022. She was born Sept. 4, 1953, at home in the rural area of Cheswick. Colleen went to elementary school in Russellton, and graduated from Lower Burrell High School. Colleen worked as a home caregiver for the elderly. She loved shopping and maintaining her beautiful home for her loved ones. She had a knack for gardening and her yard bloomed with beauty. She also loved to cook and decorate her home. She was an amazingly loving wife, mother, grandmother (nana) and sister. Colleen is preceded in death by her father (Herman F. Brick); mother (Evelyn M. Ertel Brick); brother (Herman J.); sisters (Ida L. Barclay-Naughton), and Delores J. Novick; three nephews, John R. Novick, Benjamin A. Brick and Robert L. Barclay; and a niece, Darla J. Shields-Bankosh-Williams-Poydence. Colleen is survived by her beloved husband, Michael; children, Melanie L. Theis-Duke (Michael), of Murfreesboro, Tenn., and Anthony O. Tassotti; and her precious grandchildren: grandson, Aiden A. Tassotti, and granddaughter, Jessica L. Duke, whom she loved very much. Also surviving are her sisters, Sheralanne Citrone (Mr. Clair), of North Carolina, and Sylvia Shields-Bowman, of Apollo; two brothers, Robert (Joann), of Harwick, Ralph (Peggy), of Monument, Colo.; and nieces and nephews, including her loving niece, Cheryl L. Barclay, and nephew, Ryan Barclay, of New Kensington. With deep sorrow and sadness at no longer being able to enjoy her presence and phone calls, Colleen will be missed very much. She had a good soul, would give you the shirt off her back. A genuinely kind heart and beautiful spirit who loved the Lord, she gave much and asked for so little. Love you so much. Professional services by THOMAS M. SMITH FUNERAL HOME AND CREMATORY LTD., 930 Center Ave., Blawnox, PA 15238. Services are private. Instead of flowers or donations, plant a flowering tree in her memory.

“ Deepest sympathy to all of the family. Colleen and I were classmates at Burrell and I remember her well. I worked with her sister Ida for many years at Westinghouse, and would always ask Ida to tell Colleen "Hello" May she RIP.

“ Memories of my loving sister Colleen, beautiful person inside and out. We talked for hours on the phone and laughed, hashed old times good and bad. I was lucky to have her as a baby sister, even though she would be a big sister sometimes. She had the most pretty blue eyes like her dad. Colleen will be missed so much, the thought of her not being here hurts my heart. I know that she is definitely with the Lord, with her kind heart and the loved she shared. The Lord is her shepherd.

My heart felt sympathy goes out to my niece Melanie, nephew Anthony (Tony), Colleen's loving husband and brother-in-law Michael, her grandchildren Aiden & Jessica. Plus Cheryl and Ryan Barclay who were like another daughter and grandson to her. Rest in Peace my adorable sis and sister-in-law.
