

Connor Mason Wolfe

August 10, 2016 - November 22, 2021

I took for granted that you'd far outlive me
As tall as a mountain and strong as the sea.
But seas dry up and some mountains fall
Pain pierces our bodies for a soul still so small.
Fly high sweet boy, to heavenly heights
Welcomed by family and breathtaking sights.
Flowers so fragrant and waters so clean
Surroundings more gorgeous than we've ever seen
Stars look like diamonds on dark velveteen.
God's creatures roam freely, majestic and proud
Our guardian angels look down from each cloud.
On Earth we are wracked, with pain, oh so deep
We dream of your sweet face night as we sleep
When we wake, we remember and silently weep.
We'll all carry this pain, that now is our fate
Till we all meet again at God's pearly gate.

Connor leaves behind his adoring parents, Thomas Wolfe and Sara Gerwig, his grandmother Mary Ann Wolfe, grandfather Michael (Ada) Gerwig, brothers Keegan and Zachary, sister Madolynn, great-grandfather Harry Wolfe, many aunts, uncles, cousins, close family friends, and all who knew and loved him.
