She was born July 12, 1927. Connie enjoyed her life in so many ways. Many vacations were taken in their travel trailer with her favorites being the ones to Myrtle Beach. She loved her dog, Minka, and all of her family's pets. Celebrating family Thanksgiving, Christmas and birthday gatherings were very special to her. She treasured her regular visits to her son Richard's group home. Along with enjoying visits from family and friends at HarmarVillage Care Center, where she resided, she liked watching television, reading the newspaper and having her butterscotch discs. Connie coached young students in bowling and was an avid bowler in several leagues. Connie was a homemaker and answered all of the phone calls for her husband's television service repair shop. She also worked as a bookkeeper for G.C. Murphy Co. in Tarentum and for Altmeyer's Home Store in New Kensington.

She is survived by her daughter, Diane (David) Mazur of Natrona Heights; two sons, Robert (Mary) Cihil of Natrona Heights, E. Thomas Cihil (John Engle) of Pittsburgh; seven grandchildren, Greg (Susie) Cihil, Fort Mill, SC, Kristi Cihil (Justin Macioce), Verona, Danielle (John) Bond, Westminster, CO, Matt Cihil,

The family would like to thank the staff at HarmarVillage Care Center for the care they provided to Connie throughout her stay and to Grane Hospice for their support and comfort.

Burial will be held at the National Cemetery of the Alleghenies where Constance, her husband Charles and son Richard will be laid to rest together.
