“ I am so sad to hear of my old friend Dan "Ragman" Roganti passing. He worked with me for several years at Zulu alert in the Netherlands. He was always bright, humorous and an all around guy; I could not have asked for a better Zulu partner. He was a guy who always had your back. He was with me the day that one of our F15's on Zulu alert hit the runway gate. He showed courage and professionalism in all that he done that day, he should have received a medal for his quick actions that save a lot of lives that day. My condolences go out to his family. I will miss my friend terribly, but his memory will live in all our hearts. Good By my ole military friend.
