“ I only got to see David at Gage's birthday parties at Mark and Libbey's. He would always show up for the family parties. Gage will be 13 this June, and we will miss seeing David. My husband knew David better. Over the years, they work on concrete jobs together. David would call him if he needed help with something, and my husband was always there for him. He spent many hours mentoring him, and got to think of him as a son. My heart aches for his loss. We send our condolences to the family, and will keep David in our prayers. He will be missed.
