

Diana Pavlik

October 27, 1937 - July 12, 2021

Diana Elizabeth "Diney" Cockburn Sabala Pavlik

Age 83, from Uniontown, Buffington and recently Pittsburgh, passed on Monday, July 12, 2021, in the early hours.

She was preceded in death by her husbands, Francis Joseph Sabala, a WWII Veteran, who passed on April 6, 1972 and George William Pavlik, an Army Veteran of the Korean War, who passed on April 11, 2008; siblings, William Coburn (5/16/2006), Charles Cockburn (2/17/1999) and Lois Stewart (5/2/1992); and parents, Diana Lemon (7/10/1994) and Charles Cockburn (12/23/1964).

She is survived by her children, John (Heather) Sabala and Ann Marie (Tony Masi) Pavlik; grandchildren Zachary Nolan, Dominic Masi and Nicholas Sabala; and great-grandson, Hayden.

Diana was a member of St. Procopious Roman Catholic Church in New Salem. She worked as a clerk, steam operator and later as a house cleaner. She spent most of her years caring for her family as a housewife. Diana enjoyed crossword puzzles, General Hospital and Elvis Presley.

Funeral services are to remain private.

“ Aunt Diana was the Best, most loving and beautiful Aunt. I knew I could always count on her and she would be there. She was my best friend while I was growing up, many wonderful memories and my heart is broken with her passing.
