

Donald L. Guenther

February 22, 1941 - January 7, 2025

Donald Lee Guenther, of Brackenridge, died on January 7, 2025. Born February 22, 1941, to Ruth (Wilson) Guenther and raised by his grandparents, Gustave and Madeline Guenther.

Don graduated from Arnold High School, Class of 1959. He was an Army Veteran serving in the Vietnam and Korean Wars. He was the owner of Don's Auto Body in Freeport and retired from Volkswagen and Port Authority. Don was a proud member of the Brackenridge American Legion, VFW Post 5758 and the Tarentum Fraternal Order of Eagles. In his free time, he enjoyed watching NASCAR and football, doing puzzles, and using his laptop. Don also enjoyed fishing and trips to Erie and keeping his car sparkling clean.

Donald is survived by his significant other, Lynette Waugh of 23 years; daughter, Leah C. Guenther; sister, Madeline Wilson; brothers, Ray (Ann) and George (Marie) Wilson from West Virginia; uncle, Dom Ducato; great-aunt, Donna Ducato and family; and two special friends he made the last couple years, Buck and Art.
