“ Sending my sincere condolences for the loss of (uncle) Ed!!! I'm so sorry that he passed at such an early age, but so grateful for the full life he had!

I think fondly of his fabulous story-telling ability, always weaving in humor and poking fun at the mundane things in life. Sitting around the dining room table with literally everyone laughing out loud! His passion for drumming and music was contagious! And the way he taught his son Michael how to play at the tender age of 3... with his own drum set in a small apartment - just shows how much he prized music and drums.

Ed lived life to the fullest and I'm truly grateful to consider him an uncle. Rest in peace until we meet again!

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Ed was such a great guy. I remember meeting him first time at a V Max rally. I fell in love with his orange V Max. I told him to take of my V Max every time we talked. He and I just laughed as there was no way he was selling his bike.

Such a great guy! He will be missed at our rallies and Facebook commentary. RIP Ed, we miss you! 🌸😞
