

Elda B. McKenna

February 2, 1925 - May 6, 2016

Elda B. (Shoop) McKenna

Passed away peacefully with family by her side on May 6, 2016. She was 91.

Born in Springdale, PA to the late George and Ida Shoop who owned the very popular Shoop's Restaurant in Springdale. Growing up in a restaurant, her passion was cooking and baking. Her family and friends were always delighted by her creativity. She loved the outdoors, gardening, and taking her children camping in Cook's Forest, Lake Erie, and Conneaut Lake Park. She loved her dogs over the years, the last one being a sweet, long-haired Dachshund named Amy.

Elda, affectionately called "La" lived her entire life in the Pittsburgh area. Aside from being a mom, she modeled shoes and bathing suits for Horne's Department stores in the 50s. In 1963, she moved her children to Shadyside where she worked at the Charles E. Shoop Shop, owned by her brother. She loved people from all walks of life and they loved her too.

She is survived by her oldest son, Larry Wojton and his wife Teresa Jones-Wojton of Ellwood City, PA; her daughter, Georgianna Adams of Chicopee and Chatham, MA; and her youngest son and caregiver, Charles Wojton and his wife Gayle Falvey; her beloved grandchildren, Chris Wojton and his wife

Amanda, Justin Wojton, Jocelyn Wojton and her fiancée Allan Berdine, Sarah Wojton, and Holly Stalica; her adored great-grandchildren, Hannah, Issac, and Vanessa Grace, and Noah, Avery, and Cameron; her estranged husband, Tim McKenna; her sister, Gloria Renaldi; and her brother Charles Shoop; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

Services were private.
