

Frances Kozey

November 16, 1917 - February 8, 2016

Frances Kozey (Mac)

Age 98, passed away after a long and satisfying life on Monday, February 8, 2016, with her two daughters by her side.

She was born November 16, 1917 in McKeesport, PA to the late Anna (Krulik) Mac and Michael Mac. Frances was predeceased by her loving husband of 56 years, John "Clancey" Kozey and four sisters, Katie, Mary, Nellie, and Bertha; along with brother, Michael.

She is survived by her devoted daughters, Pamela Kozey (daughter-in-law, Marie Martinucci), and Janice Kozey Cambest (son-in-law, Jack Cambest); numerous nieces and nephews; step-grandchildren, Chris (Phil) Donofrio, Craig (Jenny) Cambest, Cara (Rob) Regner; and step-great-grandchildren, Troy and Bailey Donofrio, and Rocco Cambest.

In her youth, Frances was athletic with a passion for softball and team friendships. She loved to dance, and kept up with the latest hairstyles. Frances began her long work career making candy at Crown Chocolate, followed by a critical job as a shell inspector during World War II. She left the workforce temporarily to raise a family with her beloved husband, John, and rejoined the workforce later in life for a 20 year career as a secretary in the Social Service Department of McKeesport Hospital. Well into her senior years, Frances delighted in the social life at her nursing facility, making friends and amusing the staff.

The family sends a special thanks to the staff of North Hills Health and Rehabilitation Center for their compassionate care.

There will be no viewing, and the interment will be private.

Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of one's choice.
