“ I wish to send my deepest sympathy to the Salazar Family. Arlene you are in my prayers and thoughts along with your family. Perhaps someday we can get together and share long ago memories. Nothing has changed with we're I live. Still the same. May Rick rest in Gods loving peace and may you have peace and strength in the days to come....An old friend, Josephine Krappweis Holland with hugs of love.

So happy to see your note. Made my heart feel great that my mother, may she rest in peace, was remembered as a great person and loved our family until her last breath. They are together now and dancing in each others arm! Thank you so much! Renee Ann Salazar Schaaf.

“ I had the pleasure and honor of knowing Rick who I nicknamed “Mr, Happy” for the past 10 years! His stories, his positive outlook on life until the day he passed the deep love of his wife, and children was so very admirable. I will miss our red velvet jacket club luncheons! Rest in peace, Mr.Happy! Your dear friend, Cindy
