“ Fred was a wonderful, generous, caring brother. I will always remember the good times we had together as kids and adults. Fred was always there if I needed him. I will miss my brother very much. He was a truly the best. I saw a yellow butterfly the other day and I know that was my sign from Fred. He is at peace.

Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to Judy, Mike, Ann, Amy, Mark and their children. How blessed we were to have Fred as Husband, Father, Grandfather, Uncle and brother....what a good and kind man he was.

I remember all our fun times. What wonderful memories--- oil painting and scuba diving together, Fred and Michael putting in my new kitchen on Bower Hill, Fred graciously moving my friend Lois Binkey, Fred welcoming Frank into the family, the family visit to NJ and NY, the Wyant's many great picnics and parties at Rodilin, Paris & Hieber, Fred's fantastic lobster dinner, picking and eating corn at the farm, riding the crazy horses (me thrown off in the mud/dung!), and the special and wonderful time the family had together at the Wyant's fabulous Myrtle Beach property this past February.

Fred, you are loved and will be missed by many, not just your devoted wife, Judy, your children and grandchildren but the rest of your family and friends. I know our Almighty God has plans for you and will give you comfort, peace and eternal life.

Fred was a wonderful brother-in-law and he will be sorely missed. I was most appreciative how he warmly welcomed me into the family years ago. Deepest condolences to Judy, Amy, Michael and their families.
