“ My deep sympathy. Uncle Gary was one of the kindest, most easygoing men I ever knew and I always enjoyed seeing him when I visited my Aunt Elaine. My love to the whole family.

“ Gary was a very special man. He was very loving to my daughter Denise and to my grandchildren. I remember all the cookouts that he and his late wife Elaine had at their home. Going out on the boat with them. We all had fun times. I saw him over Christmas and he looked great. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Rest in peace Gary. Love and miss you always my dear friend
