“ Maria, I was so sorry to read of your mother's passing. She was the kindest lady. When I was a kid, I remember thinking how elegant she was! May your wonderful memories of her life comfort you during this difficult time. David Heid

I have known this lady as long as Maria has been in my life, now over 35 years. I didn't see her often but I know she was devoted to her parents, children, and grandchildren. She was a model to them to get a good education, take care of their parents, and live in service to others. She was always a part of events and Holidays with Maria, Ron, Lindsey, and Dylan. She loved to cook and talk getting the latest scoop on things. She was a confidant to Maria and kept Ron in line :}. I know when Lindsey gets married this year, she will be looking down from Heaven with that gentle smile and sparkle in her eye. My love to Maria, Ron, Lindsey and Dylan.
