“ Just happen to be on computer putting Aunt Helen’s name. Sad to see she passed on a few weeks ago. Was thinking this am about seeing her around next birthday if come back to PIT, as my family enjoyed seeing her last year when visiting cemetery. So to the family I’m sorry for your loss, wish I had checked earlier I would have come back for funeral. Joseph Perkowski and family.

“ I can't express enough what Helen meant to me and not only me but to my dog, Rocky. Rocky loved Miss Helen especially for the treats she left him daily. I am going to miss the many talks we shared sitting on her porch. She had really touched my heart. I know she is at peace and where she wanted to be. I loved her as a grandma and will treasure the wonderful memories I shared with her. My condolences to the entire family.

Although I never got to meet Aunt Helen, I heard stories from close family. She spoke Polish, made a mean pierogi and was full of sass.

RIP aunt Helen!
