

Irene Miller

July 14, 1920 - April 19, 2016

Irene N. Miller

The gates of heaven swung wide open when on April 19th, when Irene Ziegenfus Miller skipped through them on her way to meet her Lord. For 95 strong years she graced the world with her charity, strength and love. Born in 1920 in Mineral Ridge, Ohio, she was raised in the Carrick neighborhood of Pittsburgh, PA.

She heard about a young man who was quite the dancer, and she invited him to dance with her. The dance became romance, and she and Charles Miller were married for sixty years.

They traveled throughout Europe, China, Cuba, Puerto Rico, Alaska, Hawaii, and the continental United States. On their numerous fishing trips to Canada, she was known for her nonchalant fishing style--she'd read and fish at the same time, often catching the biggest, and sometimes the only, fish.

She is survived by three sons, Charles Erin (Jackie) of Cincinnati, OH, Bruce Thomas of Elizabeth, PA and Don Wilson (Debbie) of Columbine Valley, CO; seven grandchildren; thirteen great-grand children; and numerous nieces and nephews. She will be dearly missed by many.
