JACOB S. BROCATO

Age 73 of Plum, PA passed peacefully at home after a courageous battle with cancer. Jack was born to Samuel & Josephine Brocato on February 19, 1948 in Pittsburgh, PA. He graduated from Oakmont High School in 1966 and Community College in 1970. He served in the United State Army with a tour in Vietnam (1968-1969) where he was awarded a Silver Star. He was proud to be a Veteran and he loved his country. Jack married Janet Hobaugh in 1974. He was a Journeyman Plumber and retired from the Oakmont Sewage Treatment Plant. He was an Oakmont volunteer fireman for 22 years. Jack enjoyed riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle, going on family vacations to the beach, visiting his son in Colorado and working in his yard. Jack was a loving husband, father and grandfather. His pride and joy were his kids and grandchildren. Jack is survived by his daughter Jackie Brocato St. George (John), son Jesse Brocato & daughter Jodie (Mike) Petrocelli, grandchildren Enzo & Livia Petrocelli in addition to many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents - Samuel & Josephine Brocato & brother George Brocato. A private family gathering to celebrate his wonderful life is what he wanted.

“ In loving memory of a great American, grandfather, father, husband and friend. So many special moments with you will live in our hearts forever. We have been so fortunate and blessed to have you, your entire family and the Oakmont gang in our lives. Your spirit will truly live on with us in every Jenga block, bingo scratch-off, crossword puzzle, firelog, left - right - center dice toss and beach breeze felt. We will love you forever...Cheers to a man well loved and a life well lived.
