“ I only knew Jim for a short while as an Aspinwall Meals On Wheels volunteer. His kindness and camaraderie made my integration into the group such a pleasure. You will be missed.
Soothing thoughts for all the people who cared for him.
Godspeed, dear Jim.

“ I've delivered for Meals on Wheels (MOW) Aspinwall to homes as volunteer, seeing Jim a few times a month for many years. When people would thank me, or offer a compliment about the food, I'd always bring their well wishes back to the kitchen. It's the people in the kitchen that do the hard work, and Jim did exactly that and continued to do so when facing difficult medical challenges. I think he continued because of his commitment to feeding people in the area and to MOW's volunteers. I was fortunate to see him a couple weeks ago, still working and in good humor. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Dear Jim, my kind and caring brother-in-law. I will miss hearing your voice and having our catch up talks. Sandy you are the best and Jim is so lucky to have had you by his side- always loved when you came east for ocean visits. Godspeed, Lois

“ Volunteering at Aspinwall Meals on Wheels without Jim will be heartbreaking for myself and all of our volunteers who adored Jim. Jim was always so positive, happy to see you, thanking you for volunteering and enjoyed listening and talking to everyone! May you be at peace and no longer in pain, Jim.

As a Meals On Wheels volunteer I also will miss Jim's kindness, his spirit and his hard work. A gentleman with a sense of humor and a deep conviction would be my best description of Jim. I think we are all lucky to have worked with him. To say that he will be missed is totally inadequate.
