

Jane E. Cameron

August 4, 1959 - April 23, 2024

Jane Elizabeth Desport

Passed away peacefully in the UPMC Montefiore hospital on April 23, 2024. Jane was born August 4th, 1959 In Latrobe PA. Jane was 64 years of age, the daughter of Ronald Cameron and the late Nancy Dent. Jane graduated from nursing school in 1982 with an RN degree from Westmoreland County Community College, she then continued her education at Geneva College to earn a BS in human resource management. Jane was employed by the Latrobe hospital and then went into management in Nevada health center and management at state life services in Pittsburgh PA. Jane enjoyed spending time with her grandson Liam, drawing and teaching arts. Jane was an avid artist and enjoyed teaching her grandson. Jane was preceded in death along with her mother, her son Ryan Desport, her grandson, Shine, and sister Susan Good.

Jane is survived by her loving father Ronald Cameron and his wife Sookie and by her loving companion Mark, who she enjoyed traveling with, her daughter Elizabeth Desport, her grandson Liam and many nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles. Services will be private as per her request. Professional services by the Thomas M Smith Funeral Home & Crematory Ltd., Blawnox
Please send memorial contributions to the UPMC internal medicine department, 200 Lothrop Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15213