

Janet F. Ord

April 19, 1951 - September 23, 2024

Janet Faye Ord, born April 19, 1951, lost her battle with pancreatic cancer on September 23, 2024, after a year without treatments or medications but a strong will to live and die on her terms and her own way (surpassing her prognosis of three to four months). Janet lived her life for her family helping to raise her grandchildren and eventually her great-grandchildren as well. She will be remembered for her no-nonsense, stern but overwhelming love, her beautiful afghans that she loved to make for family and friends, and her baking, especially her famous nut rolls and homemade bread that her loved ones fought over every holiday to try and get the biggest share of. The heart and soul of her family, she left her mark in guaranteeing a lasting legacy in her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren who will always remember the valuable lessons and arts and crafts at "Grammys".

Janet is survived by her children, Lisa Ord, and Everitt (Angel) Ord,; grandchildren, Arnell (Ashley) Ord, Kierstyn Hayden, Patricia (Samuel) Primus, Savannah Ord, and Sebastian Ord; and great-grandchildren, Alaya, Arnell Jr, Amerah, Khamari, Makenzie, Brooklyn, Zoe, and Samaiya.

Janet spent her last year exactly as she wanted, enjoying her independence, watching the trees change colors, enjoying her family, doing crafts, and watching the Steelers play on her couch while texting her grandson.

She did it HER way.
