Jean adored her family and loved her many friends; her home was always open to welcome visitors with lovingly prepared Italian specialties. She was active in St. Pio Parish/ St. Edward Church and proudly participated in the Girl Scouts for over 30 years. Never the one to slow down, even in her '90s, Jean learned to use the computer and had a Facebook page to connect with family and friends around the globe. With some prompting, Jean began to produce beautiful, detailed works of art and filled several sketch books.
