

Jean Seltzer

April 8, 1924 - September 3, 2021

Jean Seltzer

It is with heavy hearts and endless love that we mourn the passing of Jean Seltzer on September 3, 2021, at the age of 97.

Jean was born in Pittsburgh, PA on April 8, 1924 to Samuel and Cecelia Flansbaum. She is preceded in death by her parents, 8 sisters, 3 brothers, and husband, Norman Seltzer, with whom she shared 3 children, Bobby Seltzer, David (Heidi) Seltzer, and her best friend and beloved daughter, Cyndi Niedermeyer. Jean's pride and purpose belonged to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, especially Dominique and Sophia Venchess.

Jean will be remembered as a kind and loyal woman who was as generous as she was quick-witted. Her biting sense of humor and storytelling left a mark on anyone who met her.

Service and interment are private, but celebrations of Jean's life are encouraged by making donations to St. Jude Children's Hospital (www.stjude.org).

“ The day I met Jean at Canterbury was the day I fell in love calling her my work grams . It will forever break my heart as I was hoping to see her return and found out the news . I pray for Cindy and the younger ones . She will always be a part in my career path. Thanks much love

“ I only met "Grama Jean" once but her quick wit and humor left a mark on me, and I liked her immediately. I will remember her for loving chocolate bars almost as much as she loved her family (a woman after my own heart). Thinking of her family, with prayers of healing and also with gratitude that she lives on in those lucky enough to have been a part of her life. Special prayers to Cyndi - what a wonderful gift you gave your mom by tending to her up until the very end.

*My sympathies to David, Bobby, and Cindy.
I grew up next door to you on Farragut street.
Fond memories of playing whiffle ball in the back yard, and Trixie running around.
