July 22, 1939 - July 30, 2020

Jeanne Marie (Seminora) Yohe

81, of Verona PA passed away peacefully on July 30, 2020 at Canterbury Hospice.

She was born on July 22, 1939, in Pittsburgh, PA, the daughter of Nicholas and Mary (Marianna) Seminora. She graduated from Westinghouse High School in 1957.

Jeanne was devoted to her husband of 61 years, John Yohe Sr of Verona PA. She was an accomplished cook, specializing in delicious Italian food. She loved nothing better than cooking up a huge meal and sharing it with family and friends along with a glass of red wine or two.

Jeanne was a dedicated and loving mother to her three children, Joe (Sharon) Yohe of Houston, TX, John Jr (Regina) of Abington, PA, and Gina Yohe (Frank Gallicchio) of Turtle Creek PA. One of the true joys of her life was being grandmother to Angie (Brad) Weyant of Austin, TX, Chris (Christa) Yohe of Houston TX, Hannah and Grace Yohe of Abington PA. She will be deeply missed by cousins Tom (Patsy) Zullo, who was like a brother to her, Marianne Fiore, Fran and Joe Verri.

In addition to her parents, Jeanne was predeceased by her half-sister Vicki Seminora, Elizabeth (Betty) and Emmy Zullo of Pittsburgh, PA who were like grandparents to her children, and several aunts, uncles and cousins who meant a great deal to her.

Plans to receive family and friends for a celebration of Jeanne's life are on hold, pending the loosening of COVID19 restrictions. Those who wish to honor Jeanne's memory in the interim are encouraged to make donations in her name to the American Heart Association or the Alzheimer's Association.
