“ Jennifer was a wonderful lady that I knew from work for many years. She was always good for a laugh and could brighten anyone's day. I will miss her very much. I am sure this terrific lady is in a better place and hanging out with my wife Celeste and Joni and all the others that passed before her. Save me a spot up there Jen.

Jennifer (Susie) was my 1st cousin and more importantly my life long friend. We shared many wonderful childhood memories together. Through the years we saw each other occasionally because my family moved to Indiana, but we kept in touch by phone. Susie was one of the bravest, strong person I've ever known. She weathered the many trials life threw at her and never complained. I'd give her a call and those calls always lasted an hour or two. She always made me laugh so hard. She was comical and I don't think she even knew it. God I will miss hearing her contagious laugh. I am sure Susie is in heaven watching over her loved ones. Rest in peace. I will see you when God calls me home.
