

John Clark Hanna

June 21, 1944 - December 31, 2018

John Clark Hanna

Age 74. Left his beloved wife, Monday December 31, 2018 after 46 years of marriage, following a short bout of leukemia. He was the son of W. Clark Hanna and Anne B. Hanna of Philadelphia, predeceased by his brother, Bobby, survived by his adoring sister, Sarah, her husband, Francis, and their son, Robert.

A creative soul, John enjoyed many activities, e.g., cooking, singing, playing bluegrass music, print making, and professional writing. He loved his family, friends, dogs, and outdoor activities, such as, biking, skiing, tennis, walking, and pickle ball.

He was a member of The Vintage Colgate 13, Pittsburgh Guild of Artists, and was on the board of The Merrick Art Gallery.

John will be sorely missed by the people who loved him. There will be a celebration of his life at a later date. If you would like to contribute in his memory, please donate to The American Lymphoma and Leukemia Society, The Bluegrass Relief, fund.org, the Humane Society, or the charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ John Clark Hanna

October 09, 2023 at 09:55 AM

“ John Clark Hanna

October 06, 2023 at 11:36 AM

“ My deepest sympathy Barb. I wish John safe passage on his journey. I really enjoyed his banjo and guitar playing and learned a lot from playing along with him. I did not know him well but immediately saw he was a quality guy. You both are in my prayers. Best regards, Jim Patterson

jim patterson - January 06, 2019 at 01:43 PM

“ We were neighbors in Windy ghoul in Beaver for years and we just wanted to express our sympathy to his family . We had seen , after he moved from the area, his woodcuts and art at the framing shop and were just amazed at what a talent he had. Sincerely, Bob and Johanna Jackson

johanna jackson - January 03, 2019 at 12:32 PM

“ Our deepest condolences to you and your family, Barb. I will always remember John from the bike trips and political get togethers. He will always be in our prayers.

Ken Krempasky - January 03, 2019 at 11:19 AM