“ You loved working in the garden in the early Spring into the Fall. Then it was time to chop logs for your fireplace for a warm and cozy Winter. That work made you happy. I'll miss our weekly phone calls. Say hello to Aunt Peggy for me. God Bless 🙏❤️

“ I remember him as a fun loving and caring man with a lot of spunk! I remember him as being lighthearted and trying to joke around instead of taking life too seriously. I remember his kindness in opening his home to me as a struggling teen. I respect his service to our country and I think he is a man to model ourselves after. I do admire you sir. Rest in peace.

“ Uncle Johnny was a treasured brother of my mom, Helen He was known for Vezetti’s bakery and the bread and rolls he made for many to enjoy and still talk about. He lived next to us for years and showed his smirky smile to all of us when we got out of hand. Rest in Peace and watch over your children, grandkids and friends.
