

John Richard Walker

August 10, 1939 - December 20, 2015

John Richard ("Dick") Walker

76, of Mansfield, Pennsylvania died on December 20, 2015 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania from complications from a fall.

Born on August 10, 1939 in Beacon, NY to William Hay and Mary Margaret (née Richards) Walker. He was married for 54 and a half years to his college sweetheart, Beth. A lifelong learner with a Ph.D in mathematics (topology), he taught at Mansfield University for his entire career. He loved family, travel, music and friends. He died having memorized over 55 poems and still studying political systems and French. He is survived by his wife, G. Elizabeth (née Mosher) Walker (Mansfield), his daughter, Amy McCall and her husband, Robert (Pittsburgh, PA), his daughter, Gwen (Norman, OK), grandchildren, Brendan McCall (Pittsburgh), Gavin McCall (Pittsburgh), Kathleen Schark (Norman, OK), and Mackenzie Schark (Norman, OK), and his brother, Blaine Walker and his wife, Nancy (St. Paul, MN).

No public services. A Memorial Service will be scheduled for a future date. He will be interred at Mount Zion Cemetery, Gallia County Ohio.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to: the American Civil Liberties Union (action.aclu.org <<http://action.aclu.org>>), Amnesty International (donate.amnestyusa.org <<http://donate.amnestyusa.org>>) or Doctors Without Borders (<<https://donate.doctorswithoutborders.org/> <<http://borders.org/>>).

Tribute Wall

“ John Richard Walker

October 09, 2023 at 09:55 AM

“ John Richard Walker

October 06, 2023 at 11:36 AM

“ The Walkers were very kind to me at a period in my life when I needed to be and talk to someone who carried. Richard and Beth would invite me in and would calm me down until I was able to go home. Though I have not seen them recently I remember the kindest I was shown. Rest in Peace Dr. Walker, knowing you left many who carried about you.

Rachelle Lerner - December 22, 2015 at 05:54 PM