

Jonathan C. Duffer

October 17, 1958 - April 10, 2019

Jonathan C. Duffer

Age 60, went home to be with the Lord on Wednesday April 10, 2019, from the Armstrong County Memorial Hospital at Kittanning, Pennsylvania, following a period of declining health.

Born on October 17, 1958, in New Kensington, PA, he was the son of Gwendolyn G. Duffer and the late James C. Duffer. Jon resided in Adrian, PA and was an expert woodsman and gunsmith, with a fearsome intellect. He lived his life with passion for the river, forest, and the creatures surrounding his camp. It was during these years that Jon was reborn again through his trust in the name of Jesus Christ (Ephesians 2:8-9 and John 3:3).

Those of you who share Jon's love of Nature will find comfort in these lines by Teresa Hooley, England:

How should I fear to die?

Have I not seen the color of a small butterfly,
the silver sheen of breaking waves and a wood-dove's wings?

Have I not marked the coat of mouse and deer,

The shape of flowers,

the thrush's speckled throat -

And shall I fear
to fall into the hands
that made these things?

Jon was one of a kind, an inspiration in many ways, and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. He is survived by his brother, David (Stacie) Duffer and sister, Alice Duffer, his nephews James, Jonathan and Justin Duffer, and his niece Amanda Duffer.

Interment will be a private ceremony at a later date. Condolences for our mutual comfort may be addressed to his Mother, Gwendolyn G. Duffer, c/o Thomas M. Smith Funeral Home and Crematory, Ltd., 930 Center Avenue, Blawnox, PA 15238.
