

Kerry Martin Pochan

February 21, 1954 - October 23, 2017

Kerry Martin Pochan

Age 63, of New Kensington, PA, died October 23, 2017 at UPMC Presbyterian Hospital, after a long battle with cancer.

Born in New Kensington on February 21, 1954, "Bones" Pochan was preceded in death by his father, Frank Pochan; and is survived by his wife, Leigh Pochan; his mother, Frances (Samay) Pochan; and his sister, Karen Pollard, both of Hoffman, MN. He is also survived by six nephews; one niece; one great-nephew; and five great-nieces.

Pochan was employed by Day Chevrolet up until the time of his illness and was able to carry on a family tradition of working at Renton Coal Mine early on in his career. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, gardening and was an avid fan of the Pittsburgh Penguins. He especially loved spending time with his dog, "Bear" which brought much comfort and joy to him during his battle with cancer. He also loved to travel and was able to fulfill a life-long dream by moving for a brief time to Minnesota to be near family before returning back to New Kensington. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

A memorial gathering is planned for Spring 2018 when trout season opens.
