“ I remember Kirk fondly. He did love to fish. He was a friend you could count on. He was also a great car salesman, it's how I first met Kirk. He sold me a new Hyundai! He did have a good sense of humor. I do remember how much he loved his family. God love him.

“ We enjoyed watching many Penguin games and Kirk took me to my first and only live Steelers game--they beat the Ravens the day after Christmas. Wood working, fishing, and dad jokes were signatures of his life, which will never be forgotten.

“ Kirk loved karaoke outings that is when he smiled the most. I will never forget all of our good times and there where many.

I met Kirk in the early 80s when he worked for ITT Henze Service in Wexford. We went out for beers a few times even down to Cammaratta's Bar in West View, my old stomping grounds. I think at the time Data lived in Bellevue and worked for one of the airlines. Great memories of him. Just thought of him and googled his name. So very sorry to hear he passed. A great guy.
