“ Lance was a friend of mine in high school. He was a such a good guy. One of the nicest people I have ever known. He was so kind with a good heart and genuine. We lost touch over the years but I ran into him at my cousin's wedding a few years ago and got to spend some time talking. He was EXACTLY the same. A true gentleman. His kindness always impressed me. My heart goes out to his family and everyone that knew Lance. He touched many lives in a positive way.

“ I had the privilege to know Lance on a professional level. I had the honor to call him my friend. Lance was always smiling and quick to ask about me and my family. Our conversations were about family, friends, and life. One thing was undeniable, he loved Sharon, Lance Jr, and Courtney. My thoughts, prayers, and sympathy go out to the entire family. I will miss you my friend.

“ It's not often you come across someone as kind, compassionate, giving, supportive and loving as Lance Brusco, and I personally feel a deep hole in my life left by Lance's passing. It can often be hard to understand this world we live in. I suppose sometimes the best we can do is put one foot in front of the other and try to hold our loved ones a little closer.

The cliché is true, every moment is a gift. I cherish the last time we were all together, not two weeks ago, watching my little girls sit on Lance's lap making him look at photos on Erin's phone. The genuine sincerity with which he indulged them was indicative of his truly caring and loving personality. He was so good to our girls, and to us! I am so glad to have been fortunate enough to know Lance, he is and will continue to be greatly missed.
