

Larry M. Hood

May 21, 1954 - October 7, 2021

Larry Matthew Hood, 67, peacefully passed away at his home in Cheswick, PA on October 7, 2021. He is survived by his wife, Rebecca Hood, three daughters, Emily Hood, Rachel (Michael) Gordon and Deanna Petro. Also survived by his in-laws Rich and Diana Lupiensi of Springdale, sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Betty and Rick Reinsfelder of Cheswick and nephew Ryan Reinsfelder of Cheswick. Larry was a kind person and loved to talk to everyone; he made friends wherever he would go and will be missed.

Larry was a proud vet of the US Air Force during the Vietnam Era. He also enjoyed playing pinochle, cooking, and watching sports. Most of all, he enjoyed taking his Golden Lab, D.O.G, to the dog park where he could run for hours.

Arrangements will be private at the family's request. Donations can be made in memory of Larry Hood to the VA Homeless Vet Program at H.J. Heinz facility, 1010 Delafield Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15215.

“ My husband and I became friends at Mountain Pines Campground year ago. My husband Mark and him became a good friend and golfing buddy. We have always wondered where he was now because we wanted to visit him. He came to Uniontown, Pa to visit us. We were saddened to see that he passed and happy to see that he had a loving wife and family. Larry was a great human being. I'm sorry that we lost touch with him. My sincere condolences Cathy & Mark Bryner
