“ I remember all the summertime picnics with both sides of the family. There was lots of food, swimming and laughter. This one particular picnic stands out as the funniest. We were playing badminton. Somehow, Linda started to fall forward but wasn't able to get her handsome in front of herself in time to break the fall. So she fell face forward onto the ground. We laughed and laughed. Years later, when my sister and I reminisced, we would crack up laughing all over again.

“ I will always remember light up nights at pap and her house at Christmas, days spent at the pool, walking over to feed the neighbors horses, her collection of Swarovski crystals and lots of good meals that her and pap cooked. Rest in peace Grammy Linda.
