

Lorraine Brocato

December 4, 1945 - May 4, 2025

Lorraine (Adams) Brocato, age 79, a lifelong resident of Oakmont, passed away peacefully in her childhood home on Sunday, May 4, 2025, after a courageous and hard-fought battle with cardiopulmonary hypertension.

Born on December 4, 1945, she was the beloved daughter of the late William H. Adams and Hilda May (Seber) Adams, and the cherished sister of W. Howard Adams (Eileen) of North Fayette. Lorraine graduated from Oakmont High School in 1963 and, in 1965, married her high school sweetheart, the late George E. Brocato. They shared 53 wonderful years of marriage before George's passing on August 17, 2018.

Lorraine is survived by her devoted daughter and best friend, Amy Mastrocesare (Jason), whom she adored, along with their two sons, Michael Siemianowski (Chelsea) and Tyler Mastrocesare, who deeply loved their Grandma. She was also a proud grandmother to Jeffrey Houston, Eric Murrell, and Andrew DeChantal, and a doting great-grandmother to the light of the family's life, Madelyn Siemianowski, daughter of Michael and Chelsea.

She was preceded in death by her beloved son, Nicholas E. Brocato (December 20, 2017), her daughter, Becky Brocato (August 27, 2022), and her granddaughter, Emily Houston (January 23, 2017).

Lorraine's warmth, strength, and love for her family will be remembered always.

At the family's request, services will be private.
