In his 47 years as a saved Christian, Louis, also known as Pap Louie, was a voracious reader of the bible and enabled the salvation of many people he encountered while serving in Christian organizations, especially while actively involved in a prison ministry for over 25 years. He lived his life to demonstrate that it's the relationships that matter, and it starts with a relationship with Jesus Christ, who is the way to salvation. He provided that gift to everyone he contacted living out the God, Family, Country priorities.

Serving overseas during the Korean war, Louis was a proud veteran who was assigned of the Army's 101st Airborne Division, training in Texas and deploying to the Pacific theater.

Louis loved playing cards and sports, gardening and making people laugh by lovingly giving them a hard time, especially his family. Whether it was at family gatherings, church events or otherwise, he had a gravity to him and always made those around him feel special and loved.
