“ She was one classy woman, sadly a vanishing breed. Her fashion sense, common sense and business sense were all of a superlative nature. Her penchant for chocolate cream in the middle of the night was both a source of amusement and an indication that she was always going to get what she wants. A well deserved rest in peace for Louise.

Louise was a very sweet and loving lady with a lot of "Chutzpah"! I met her over 5 years ago and I was very taken by her wonderful sense of humor and clever conversation!
I am close to her daughter Chris who has been a dear friend to me through some rough times in my own life. I am grateful for having met her and for having the great privilege of spending time with her and her family!
Eternal rest to you Louise!
