

Margaret Ann Sullivan

April 9, 1948 - February 27, 2024

Margaret Ann (Maggie) Sullivan

Age 75, beloved daughter of the late Francis P (Pat) and Mary Margaret (nee Lydon) Sullivan died suddenly on February 27, 2024. Maggie was born April 9, 1948 in St Louis Missouri and moved to Pittsburgh with her family in 1957 and has lived in the North Hills of Pittsburgh for most of her life.

Family was important to Maggie. She loved traveling back to St. Louis to visit her many cousins, making every effort to be there for baptisms, weddings, and funerals. Longtime friends were part of her family; their children and grandchildren referred to as nieces and nephews that she loved with all her heart would do anything for including buying a car seat for her car so she could pick a child from daycare; attending sports events and dance recitals, babysitting her ducklings, and most importantly for almost 25 years going to Calvary Cemetery to "spend time with the boys."

Maggie is survived by her brother Patrick (the late Patricia Dimond), his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, her sister Mary Blanche, her many cousins and close friends. Maggie gave to others with her whole heart during her life and will continue to help others in death as an organ/tissue donor.

Respecting her wishes, interment will be private. Please honor her by continuing to care for others.

Donations can be made in memory of Margaret Sullivan and be directed to CORE, 204 Sigma Dr. Pittsburgh, PA 15238.

Arrangements entrusted to Thomas M Smith Funeral Home & Crematory, Blawnox, PA.
