

Marjorie "Marje" Wagle

July 2, 1938 - September 25, 2024

Marjorie "Marje" A. Wagle, 86, formerly of Cheswick, passed away peacefully, Wednesday, Sept. 25, 2024, at Amber Woods at Harmar Village. She was preceded in death by her husband, Art Wagle, and her parents, Giles and Geraldine Thomas. Marje is survived by her children, Denise (Jay) Anderson and Steven Wagle; brother Chuck (Anita) Thomas; granddaughters, Stephanie (Bryan) Baldwin, Kendra (Kevin) Muschar, Kelci Anderson, and Kayla Anderson; and great-grandson, Liam Baldwin; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Marje graduated from the Spencer Hospital School of Nursing in Meadville, PA in August 1959. She took great pride in her education and her work as a nurse at Harmarville Rehabilitation Center, where she spent the majority of her career. But she considered her greatest accomplishment to be her family. Marje was blessed to have been married to her husband Art for 60 years, whom she met in Pittsburgh when she needed a ride back to nursing school. Thankfully, Art's brothers Stan and Ron were busy that day - and Art became Marje's permanent chauffeur. They were married a year later and raised their two kids in Cheswick. As they got older, Marje and Art spent much of their retirement back in the car - driving around their three granddaughters who lived in Plum.

Marje loved Glenn's ice cream, playing the piano, and spending time with family. She was also a talented sketch artist and an incredibly detailed historian - her family will always treasure the books she spent years making that contain the entirety of their family history. Above all else, she loved being a mother and a grandmother.

Marje always called herself the luckiest girl in the world. Her granddaughters want everyone to know that they were the lucky ones.
